

PSYCHOLOGY IN THE UNITED STATES

In 2018, out of the people licensed to practice psychology by a state medical board in the U.S.:

- 100% have Sexual Sadism Disorder
- 33% have Anti-Social Personality Disorder
- 77% have Pedophilic Disorder
- 12% have Schizophrenia
- 7% have the mental disorder of Psychopathy

In 2018, out of all the people licensed to practice psychology by any state medical board in the U.S. who currently have Anti-Social Personality Disorder:

- 93% have committed felony rape as defined by any of the state laws of the U.S. with direct contact within the last three years
- none of them have ever taken any prescription medications advertised to treat Anti-Social Personality Disorder in this lifetime
- none of them have been involuntarily committed into a psychiatric institution in this lifetime

In 2018, out of all the people licensed to practice psychology by any state medical board in the U.S. who currently have the mental disorder of Psychopathy:

- 100% have committed felony rape as defined by any of the state laws of the U.S. with direct contact within the last three years
- 7% have taken prescription medications advertised to treat the symptoms of psychopathy
- none of them have been involuntarily committed into a psychiatric institution in this lifetime

In 2018, out of all the people licensed to practice psychology by any state medical board in the U.S. who currently have Sexual Sadism Disorder:

- 100% have committed felony rape as defined by any of the state laws of the U.S. with direct contact within the last 12 months
- none of them have ever taken any prescription medications advertised to treat Sexual Sadism Disorder in this lifetime

In 2018, out of all the people licensed to practice psychology by any state medical board in the U.S. who currently have Pedophilic Disorder:

- 100% have committed felony child sex abuse as defined by any of the state laws of the U.S. with direct contact within the last 12 months

- 92% have committed felony rape as defined by any of the state laws of the U.S. with direct contact within the last three years
- none of them have ever taken any prescription medications advertised to treat Pedophilic Disorder in this lifetime

In 2018, out of all the people licensed to practice psychology by any state medical board in the U.S. who currently have Schizophrenia:

- none of them have been involuntarily committed into a psychiatric institution in this lifetime
- none of them have ever taken any prescription medications advertised to treat Schizophrenia

This census was conducted on September 24, 2018.