

WORLD CENSUS ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The world population is about 7.7 billion people. Approximately 17% of the entire world population of human beings has survived human trafficking in the context of sexual violence for financial profit in 2019.

17% of 7.7 billion is 1,309,000,000, or 1.3 billion, 9 million people.

Of the approximated 1,309,000,000 human beings who have survived human trafficking in 2019:

- Over 71% currently have pedophilia
- Over 28% do not currently have pedophilia
- Between 71-72% have perpetrated human trafficking in 2019

Of the approximated 12.1% of the world population who have perpetrated slavery in the context of commercialized sexual violence:

- 87% have trafficked their spouse in 2019
- 100% of the people who have perpetrated human trafficking in the context of sexual violence for financial profit have trafficked a family member in 2019
- 62% have trafficked their biological children in 2019
- 62% have trafficked their niece or nephew in 2019
- 78% have trafficked a sibling of theirs in 2019
- 67% have trafficked a parent of theirs in 2019
- 65% have trafficked an aunt or uncle of theirs in 2019
- 54% have trafficked a grandparent of theirs in 2019
- 35% have trafficked a great-aunt or great-uncle of theirs in 2019
- 68% have trafficked their grandchildren in 2019
- 11% have trafficked their great-grandchildren in 2019

This census was conducted on February 9, 2019.