Re: COM # 81591

Dear Davita,

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 does not specifically outlaw discriminatory actions towards people based on biological sex. However, this does not bar accountability for Sun Tran to retreat into full compliance with federal law. Caucasian women have been targeted for sexual harassment in advertising based on sexo-racial hatred; the fact that white people perpetrate hate crimes reserved specifically for white women does not make it any less of a racially motivated crime.

Title IX of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 is interpreted to be about women's rights to education. Does federal law asserting our civil rights have to spell out that female adolescents taking the bus to school have the protection of the law from harassment based on their biological sex in order for Sun Tran to stop perpetrating it, or, can you simply realize your crime and swiftly take action to stop your commitment to it?

Revenge by steering consumer demand for human trafficking towards Caucasian women is nothing more than punitive victim-blaming for failing to triumph over patriarchy with the all-mighty power of their white privilege. Caucasian women have been slaves for thousands of years just the same as women of color have. White women gained the right to vote in this country along with black women.

People with pedophilia, the customers of human trafficking, have promoted racism for millennia to engender, "Take them, not me," as the people around them were terrorized into placating with the sacrifice of their neighbors. Racism has been used as a social excuse to hide pedophilia as the driving force of all slavery.

All crimes of slavery have always been motivated by sexual violence. The lies in our history books about slavery perpetrated solely as economic oppression have been tolerated because of the profoundly deep shame of victims and their descendants.

Caucasian women with elite socio-economic privilege do not fight against racism because they have pedophilia. They want to promote the lie that any person without pedophilia would hate someone based on the color of their skin, because they enjoy making underfoot people feel worthless. They may make a public show of embracing multi-cultural and multi-racial equality, but it is only their sisters of color with pedophilia that they offer their hands to.

It is true that with privilege comes responsibility and that anyone with socio-economic privilege has a responsibility inherent this this privilege to fight against exploitation and forcible profiteering. I avow that no Caucasian woman in this country has ever sanctioned racism for the purpose of maintaining an economic advantage unless she was a woman with pedophilia.

Is Sun Tran really going to be so bold as to action that because federal law does not specifically state they are not allowed to perpetrate harassment on female passengers with their advertising that there is no compelling reason to quit promoting sexo-racial hatred?

Best regards,

Chelsea Wright
